1. The style of proceeding is the part at the top of the document that identifies your case within the court system. You will use the style of proceeding on every one of your documents, whether they are filed in the court registry or not. Insert the court number, the location of the registry (e.g., Vancouver), as it is part of your style of proceeding. Write in the names of the plaintiff and defendant in capital letters (not addresses) in the style of proceeding.
 2. Insert your name if you are discontinuing the action.
 3. Identify the claim(s) that is being discontinued and the parties you are discontinuing it against (e.g., the claim for damages for breach of contract against the defendant, Joe Brown).
